Sentenced to Nine Months Imprisonment and to Pay a Fine of 1,000 Marks How the Case Was First Brought to the Attention of the German Authorities, BERLIN, Jan. 14. The trial of Robert T. Kneebs, the American trotting horse owner, charged with having entered and started on German tracks the mare Bethel under the name of Nellie Kneebs, which began on Saturday, ended to-day. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty. The Court sentenced Kneebs to nine months' imprisonment, to pay a fine of 1,000 marks, and also ordered the seizure and forfelture of the mare. The trial created a great deal Interest in sporting circles.

Bob Kneebs is an Englishman who has lived at Sloux City, Ia., for twenty-five years, training and campaigning trotters. He drove Maid, Lady Turpin, Elmwood Chief, Jessie Gaines, Bethel, and other noted harness racers in the West before he went abroad, early in 1894, for a campaign on European tracks. O. O. Hefner of Paxton, Ill., furnished the money for the enterprise, Kneebs furnishing the horses. One of the animals in their stable was called Nellie Kneebs after they crossed the was called Nellie Kneebs after they crossed the Atlantic, although she was known on this side as Bethel, 2:104, a fast mare that Kneebs campaigned in 1893 in lowa and Missouri. Nellie started in the slow (cases as a green trotter without a record, and she won everything in sight until they reached Berlin, where the American horse lord Byron finally beat her in slow time. Hefner and Kneebs quarrelled over the result, the former claiming that the latter had pulled the mare, and Hefner informed the authorities that Nellie Kneebs was Bethel with a record of 2:104. Kneebs was arrested, while the authorities took the suspected ringer into custody.

stody. At the request of the Berlin Trotting Club At the request of the Herlin Trotting Club, the Board of Review of the American Trotting Association hast year investigated Kneebe's claim that Bethel was still on his farm near Sloux City. The testimony was strongly against Kneebe's claim and was forwarded to the Berlin club, who thereusen expelied the lowarinsman. In May the German Consul resident in Chicago held an official investigation, taking testimony to be used in the trial of the case in Berlin. Bob was requested to produce the mare claimed to be Bethel, but he failed to do this, producing instead two or three rubbers who testified that they had seen Bethel at Sioux City within three weeks.

Nat Brown and Tom Cullen testified that the Nat Brown and Tom Cullen testified that the Sloux City mare was not Bethel, but Clara Chatham. Kneebs meanwhile had been released on ball and returned to the West, where he drove one or two races in 1895. His expulsion abroad, however, barred him from American Association tracks. Hefner confessed to his share in the escapade and claims now to be in good standing in Berlin. He is now in the West, getting together a string of horses, it is said, with a view to campaigning them in Germany.

TALENT LEFT IN EVERY RACE. A Poor Day for Pavorites at the Crescent City Jockey Club's Track,

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 14.-P. J. Miles had everything his own way to-day and captured the purses with both of his starters. Kirk and Text were 8 to 1 each at post time. Le Banjo sur prised the wise ones in the second race by beating the hot thing, Emin Bey, a length. Imp Monarch and Jake Zimmerman had a hammer-and-tongs finish in the fourth race, but Joe Hill the "Monk" and landed by a short nose. In the last race all the talent could see was Dr. Work, and, as they had not picked s winner, they plunged on the Doctor to get even. He opened at 3 to 1 and was backed down to 2 to I, but Howling Green, who did so poorly in his last few starts and was ignored by the pub-lic, made a runaway race of it. Some of the wise ones had Rosalind III. out for a "killing" in the first race, but Murphy rode poorly, keep-ing her in the pocket most of the way. Sum-maries:

It was "ladies day" at the New Manhattan A. C., and the big Madison avenue club house was thronged for hours with fair friends of the members. The programme arranged was worthy of the special occasion, and furnished a continual round of enjoyment from 1 o'clock until long aftersunset. Prof. Asher's orchestra opened the entertainment with some catchy selections in the parlor, after which the scene was transferred to the instatorium. Here the visitors were treated to fancy swimming exhibitions by Miss Nettle Trabaud and Fred Ralmes, the club instructor. Tub racing, diving, and raft pegging were the other features. A general move was then made to the gymnasium, where the ladies evinced flattering interest in the baton juggling of James C. De Forest, the wrestling of Thomas Ward and George A. Salaman, and two spirited boxing bouts between E. M. Vandervoort and Albert Sanders and Steve O'Donnell and J. J. Frawley. BILLIARDS.

The Inter-city Tournament for Amateur

The first afternoon's play in the amateur in ter-city handicap billiard tournament at four teen-inch balk line, attracted an unusually large crowd to the parlors of Maurice Daly Thirty-first street and Broadway, yesterday The contestants were: Frank Keeney Oxford lub of Brocklyn, handleap 240, against Dr Ranney, Union League Club of this city, handlcap 210; Fred Oakes, N. Y. A. C., handlear 220, against Fred Poggenburg, Liederkranz handicap 200.

The first game was played between Keeney and Dr. Ranney. It was the opinion before play becan that the latter would be an easy winner Keeney, however, played a brilliant game. He started in with runs of two, seven, and six, while Ranney could only collect five points, tripping up in the third inning on an easy single cushion shot, Both men missed in the fourth inning. From this point up to the end of the twenty-fourth inning the play was very even. Keeney then displayed his stendiness, and making some difficult shots ran out his total of 240 in fifty-eight innings, while it took his opponent fifty-six innings to make his total of 145.

Fred Oakes and Fred Poggenburg were the contestants in the second game. The latter started in with the lead, making a total of started in with the lead, making a total of seventeen in the first three innings and later aided runs of eleven, eighteen, thirteen, and eleven. Oakes did not fare so well, but he pulled down the lead with a run of twenty in the seventeenth inning, and with a fine rally of twelve, fifteen, and fourteen, ran out the game, making his total of 220 in forty-eight innings. The scores: FIRST GAME.

Harnard, Montauk Club, Brooklyn, and Arthur Townsend, St. Joseph Lyceum, New York. The former was handleapped at 210 and the latter at 325. The New York man was not in form, being unable to keep the balls tegether, and missed on some very simple shots. Barnard was in his old-time form, and made some very pretty shots. Before the game was well advanced many thought that the handleap should have been reversed. Barnard made runs of 12, 17, and 31, in quick succession. The summary: FIRST GAME.

Dr. Jennings, Crescent A. C., and Dr. Miller, New Manhattan A. C., were the contestants in the last game. After an interesting game, Dr. Jennings won by the score of 200 to 191. He made one run of 48, which is the largest run of the tournament. Average Jennings, 3 29-57; high run, 48. Miller, 3 17-58; high run, 19.

Commenting on Ynle's Rowing Arrangements.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN-Sir: I note in your issue of Jan. 14 a telegram from New Haven that warrants comment. Yale cannot arrange to row Oxford or Cambridge, will not accept a challenge from Cornell or Pennsylvania, would race Columbia, but considers he a foe unworthy of her mettle, but perhaps would a fee unworthy of her mettle, but perhaps would condescend to row the winner of the race of these minor (sie!) colleges. Pennsylvania has a record on the water for which she need not blush. Cornell for ten years (84-93) never suffered defeat. Columbia sent abroad the only American crew that ever won the Henley, and together with some other minor (sie!) colleges whipped Yale into withdrawing from the old Intercollegiate Rowing Association.

The great Alexander defeated everything in sight before he began to sigh for other worlds to conquer.

THE NEW YORK A. C.'S ELECTION. Looks Like Weeks for Captain-Only Tw Regulars May Be Defeated.

Excitement ran high at the New York A. C. last night when the polis were declared open for the annual election. Little time was wasted over the annual meting. President Whitely took the chair promptly at 8 o'clock, and the annual reports were read and carried with a rush, There was an unusual scarcity of orat rs among the hundreds present in the gymnasium, and before many minutes voting was in lively progress in the pariors. Within an hour 400 votes had been polled, and members kept coming along in a steady stream.

The scene in the vestibule and corridors eclipsed any incident at the club house since Walter G. Schuyler ran against Bartow S. Weeks for the Presidency. The advance picket of canvassers was stationed immediately inside the storm doors, and every voter who came along was forced to run the gauntlet between lines of lobbyists armed with formidable bun-dies of tickets and pasters. The latter were more in evidence than at any previous election and completely puzzled the experts who tried to figure out results in advance. Whole tickets became rarities as the contest waxed warm, and more than one voter was seen to use as many as half a dozen pasters.

For this reason even the unopposed candi-dates did not feel secure against cutting, and the most sanguine would not venture to anticipate a unanimous vote.

It had been currently believed that Weinacht was the regular nominee for captain, but when the Nominating Committee's ticket was distributed last night the captain's place was found to be vacant.

It appears that Capt. Baxter's positive withdrawal at the last moment forced the commit-tee to declare the ticket without supplying the deficiency. As a matter fact there were four tickets in the field last night—the regular ticket, minus a captain; the Weinacht ticket, the Weeks ticket, and a ticket on which Seneca D. Powell and Douglas Henry were scratched in favor of Charles J. Hayes and John F. Muir.

Some of the Weeks men took advantage of the convenient space on the regular tickets in circulation and pasted in their candidate's name. In other words, while supporting their own man, they seemed content to endorse R. C. Williams, although the two have not been on a very amicable footing for some time.

The polling closed at midnight, but owing to the number of pasters the official result could not be obtained. The total number of votes cast reached M14.

The concensus of opinion was that Weeks had been elected to the captaincy, and that another independent candidate, James D. Foot, had secured a seat on the Board at the expense of Seneca D. Powell, the regular candidate. The following candidates, it is thought, have been elected:

James Whitely, President; Thomas L. Watson, Vicefield last night-the regular ticket, minus elected:

Goodhue, Treasurer; Bartow S. Weeks, Capitain, Governors for two year-B. C. Williams, H. F. O'Connor, Waiter S. Baldwin, Robert D. Winthrop, James D.

Thompsen.

In addition to the governors elected last night
the following are entitled to serve another year,

No Denials to Make, Except that Fouts

Will Be Retained as Manager, President Byrne of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, when asked yesterday for an opinion on the statements of Messrs. Abeli and Johnson relating to new grounds, said: "I have no denial to make of anything that has appeared in THE SUN, except that it looks now as if we would remain at Eastern Park during the coming season, and Dave Foutz will be under contract to the Brooklyn Club. The policy of our club is not to be uncharitable. Foutz has been honest, faithful, and painstaking as an employee, and he wilt be retnined.

Mr. Byrne further said that he could not tell when the National Board would meet, but that he, as a member of the Rules Committee, was in favor of the double umpire system and the disciplining of players who leave their positions to question an umpire's decision.

The reason the Brooklyn Club will probably remain at Eastern Fark this season is that the obstacles in the way of a deal with Aibert 1. Johnson cannot be overcome in time to have new grounds prapared for the opening League games. But it does not mean that the deal, which has been thoroughly outlined in The Sun, has fallen through, for it is still on.

GEO. A. CASTOR & CO., TAILORS. Fifth Ave. Hotel 241 Broadway,

Opp. City Hall. NINE OF THE CREW DROWNED.

A Fishing Schooner Sunk by a Steamer Off Highland Light.

Bosron, Jan. 14.—The fishing schooner Fortuna, Capt. Greenlaw, from Boston for Georges Banks, was in collision last night with the British steamer Barnstable, off Highland Light. The schooner was cut almost in two and sank within three minutes. Fourteen of her crew were saved by the steamer, but nine men went down with the vessel. Those drowned belonged in Gloucester, where they leave families.

The Fortuna left the Wharf, Boston, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning bound for the Georges on a fishing trip. She had a crew of twenty-four men all told. The lost were William Akman, Robert Chuds, Harry Menefee, Thomas Seward, Crawford Minach, Harry Emeneau.

Seward, Crawford Minach, Harry Emeneau, Simon Diveaux, John Clark, and William Tobin. Arthur Noonan, cook on the fishing vessel, was severely injured by broken timbers, and was severely injured by broken timbers, and was sent to the City Hospital.

Capt. Paine of the steamer said that the weather was clear at the time of the collision, and that the schooner's jib or forestaysall obscured her lights so that it was impossible to see her from the steamer until too late to avoid collision. The members of the schooner's crew who were saved lost their effects. They were sent to their homes in Gloucester to-day, The steamer sustained no injury save the scraping of the paint from her bow. The Fortuna was built at Gloucester in 1894. She registered 124 tons gross. The Burnstable is from Port Antonio with fruit for this city. She brought the first intelligence of the disaster when she errived.

Capt. Paine ordered his engineers to keep first intelligence of the disaster when she arrived.

Capt. Paine ordered his engineers to keep headway, in order that the steamer's nose would remain in the aperture made in the schooner long enough to give those on board an opportunity to escape. Most of the men on the schooner were in the forecastle, and when the shock of the collision was felt they hurried on deck, climbed up the rigging of their vessel, and reached the deck of the steamer. In about four minutes after the collision occurred the schooner drifted away from the steamer, plunged forward, and sank in about fifty fathoms of water.

BAD SON HENRY'S BIG ROLL.

He Disappears With It and Leaves His Friend to Pay Their Cab Hire. While Policeman Hughes was patrolling Bridge street in Brooklyn early yesterday morning Thomas Monohan, a New York cab driver, who was standing in front of Osterheld's saloon, told him that there was a man in the saloon who was trying to cheat him out of $6 cab fare. When the man came out of the saloon he was arrested and taken to the Adams street

he was arrested and taken to the Adams street station. He said he was William Smith, and that he lived at Smith & McNell's Hotel in this city. When arraigned before Justice Walsh in the Adams Street Court he said that William Henry, the so-called bad son of Miser Henry, who was murdered last summer, was responsible for the cab fare. He said:

"Henry and I have been old acquaintances. We went out for a good time yesterday, and we had it. William made the corks fty. He had a roll of bills with him that would make you open your eyes. First we had a fine dinner in a French restaurant, and Henry called the cab and we started for Brooklyn. White we were in Osterbeld's saloon Henry somehow disapin Osterheld's saloon Henry somehow disap-peared. If he had been around he would have paid the cabman and saved me from this trouble."

Smith pleaded not guilty to a charge of in-toxication and was sent to jail in default of $200 oxication and was sent to jail indefault of $200 mil, pending examination.
William Henry could not be found yesterday, t was admitted at Osterheld's saloon that he may been there for a short time on Monday.

conclusion he said: "We have consulted the District Attorney and Corporation Counsel regarding the method and Corporation Counsel regarding the method employed to obtain evidence against liquor self-sers who sell liquor to minors. We find that it is legal and proper. The reason we took this legal and proper is because certain of the action of consulting the Corporation Counsel and District Attorney is because certain of the friends of the other side had raised the question.
